UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE
TO THE UNITED NATIONS

November 3, 1975

Dear General Scowcroft:

In the course of the general debate which opened the Thirtieth General Assembly, and which is now concluded, there was extensive comment on the success of the Special Session on Development and International Economic Cooperation which met in September. We have assembled a sample of this comment, along with similar items from the world press. I hope you will find them of interest.

Sincerely yours,
